

KENT EVANS 2017 EAGLE AWARD NOMINATION

The Eagle Award was established in 1998, and in 2012 was renamed the Kent Evens Eagle Award in Honor of SNMSHRM's founding Member. This award is given to a community individual or group who has made a significant impact in the field of Human Resources through their contributions, leadership, and guidance to their most important resources – the individuals in the workforce. This recipient does not have to be a member of SNMSHRM, nor do they have to work specifically as a Human Resource professional.
